Expand Your Imagination and Unleash Your Creativity

Dream Makers Studio, a theatre arts learning organization for children and adults, offers a broad-range of classes and workshops designed to enhance performance, self-development, and life skills. Through theatre arts education, we help students of all ages develop and nurture self-confidence, self-esteem, creative expression, and communication. Each class provides an enriching environment designed to expand imaginations and unleash creativity through active participation and interaction.

Acting Camp for Kids

(Entering Grades 5-8)

Exercise your child's imagination and story-telling this summer! In this workshop-style class, youngsters of all acting levels discover the theatre world. Students develop teamwork and self-confidence through movement and characterization as they act out scenes from classic tales. Parents and friends are invited to the last class to see a final presentation!

Guitar Lessons

(Ages 7-13)

The Huntley Park District is pleased to have JC's Guitars & Lessons offer lessons. Justin & Christina are the owners and operators of JC's Guitars & Lessons in Algonquin. During the past four years, they have built a successful retail business and music program, offering private music lessons in guitar, bass, drums and piano. Justin & Christina are committed to Huntley and surrounding communities. In 2007 they were formally recognized and awarded the Algonquin Business Community Service Award. JC's will bring to the Huntley Park District a teaching staff that poses superior teaching knowledge, abilities, and techniques. They look forward to much success in bringing music education to the Huntley Park District with quality guitar lessons tailored to your child and their own personal skills and learning ability. Please contact Christina at 847-658-9932 if you would like information about renting an instrument during the class. Fee includes book and materials.
