Little Masters at LEGO Engineering

(Ages 5-7 years without parent)

Children just love to 'build and break', and that is how they build-on the storehouse of their creative energy. Working with LEGO® Education Kits, under professional guidance, students will make working models of simple machines and learn some of the basic concepts of engineering and science. Hands-on activity develops understanding of 'how things work', which develops the aptitude for engineering & promotes learning in science. The program stimulates their creativity, and provides a supportive environment for its exploration, as well as helps promote social skills.

Digital Movie with Animation

(Ages 8-12 years without parent)

'Movie making' is a perfect art-form which brings together a variety of talents and skills. Children have a great sense of creativity and imagination which need appropriate impulse and encouraging-setting to manifest. The participants will choose themes for their movies and develop the plot. They will set up studios, learn animation, create the movie, edit, add 'title-credits-special effects' etc., and burn it to a CD to take home. They work in small teams with technical equipment, a complete set of which is allotted exclusively to each team. Working cooperatively, they also hone their social skills, and appreciate value of team work.

(Participants are encouraged to bring props, toys and other materials that they would need to make their animated movie.)

Destination Hollywood

(Ages 7-12 years without parent)

Lights, camera, action! Here is your chance to tell your story using a real camcorder and personal computer. The participants will become directors and actors; script writers, cameramen and music directors. Working in small teams participants will discuss their ideas to choose a theme for the movie and develop the script. They will set up studios; roll play members of a movie-crew and video record the performance scenes to a PC. The recordings will be organized on storyboard to do final editing, add special effects and music to create their movie. Participants will receive a CD copy to take home and share with friends and family.

Your journey begins here! Welcome to a world of undercover agents, high-tech robots and secret missions. Working in teams, with knocked-down LEGO® robotic kits, the participants will assemble 'robotic mission-vehicles'. The step by step robot-building instructions are provided on laptop computers by interactive software. After testing their spybots (robotic machines) for operational readiness, they will obtain mission briefings from the S.M.A.R.T. Headquarters for executing secret missions. Using the remote maneuver and control system, they will guide their spybot against time to accomplish the missions.

Remembrance Tree Ceremony

Loves ones are remembered during this annual event. Names are read aloud while personalized ornaments are viewed on the Remembrance Tree.

The Huntley Park District is working with Heritage Woods on this event and the tree and ornaments will be displayed at their location at 12450 Regency Parkway. Please contact Lynn at Heritage Woods at (847) 669-5185 by December 1st to place an ornament on the tree. Remembrance Ceremony will take place on Saturday, December 10 at 9:30 a.m. A special visitor will make an appearance after the ceremony at Heritage Woods.

Letters to Santa

We've been in contact with Santa Claus! He has agreed to let some of his "special" elves set out a special mailbox at the REC Center. Just write your letter to Santa and drop it off in his mailbox.

The mailbox will be set out the first week in December. All letters will be answered. Last pick-up for Santa letters is December 11. Please remember to include your return address for Santa to respond. Sorry, but we are unable to return original letters.

Basket Building with the Easter Bunny

(Ages 2+ with parent)

Now's your chance to visit with the Easter Bunny while making your very own take-home Easter basket! Your child will have their picture taken with the happy bunny and will create an Easter basket and decorate an egg to top off the holiday experience. Participants must register by March 14 to be included in the event. A Polaroid picture of your child with the bunny is also included. Note that use of dyes for the egg coloring will be present, so please dress appropriately.
